Claim Report

SIGNIFICANT INFORMATION GAP

'For certain categories of renewals, the processing time is now approximately 6 – 8 weeks from the time of initial application, with no category exceeding a wait time of 16 weeks'

Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration

Published: 08 OCT 2026 | Version: 1.0

Receipt Brief

THE CLAIM

The Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration's Immigration Service Delivery published the following statement regarding processing timeframes for Irish Residence Permit (IRP) renewal applications.

'For certain categories of renewals, the processing time is now approximately 6 – 8 weeks from the time of initial application, with no category exceeding a wait time of 16 weeks'[3]

THE EVIDENCE

It is unclear if the Department's claim is referring to the end-to-end processing of applications. Receipt Brief has not identified publicly available end-to-end processing performance data that evidences the claim. However, the Department publishes the dates of submitted applications beginning to enter processing[1], with archived pages stored on the Internet Archive[2].

THE INFORMATION GAP

Significant Information Gap

As end-to-end processing performance data was not identified, and the claim does not specify if it is in reference to the end-to-end processing, there is a significant amount of information that is missing to validate the claim.

Sources

01 Renewing your registration permission if you live in the Republic of Ireland

Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration • Published 2026

Webpage Linked Here

02 Wayback Machine - August 20, 2026, Information on online renewal timelines

Internet Archive • Published 2026

Webpage Linked Here

03 Information on online renewal timelines

Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration • Accessed August 20 2026

Webpage Linked Here